

Crop for HUGS

3rd Annual Crop Service Project

Do you need some time to escape from your everyday routine? Do you need some uninterrupted scrapbooking time? Would you love to work on your vacation scrapbook or cards with friends in a fun informal atmosphere? Actually, you can bring whatever craft/hobby you enjoy!!

DATE: 1/29/2011
TIME: 9:00AM - 4:00PM
CALVARY CHURCH ATRIUM

AHG Mission: Building women of integrity through service to God, family, community and country.

American Heritage Girls HUGS (Heritage Girls United Giving Service) program fills duffel bags with NEW goodies children need and love. The HUGS bags are given to deserving children in St. Charles and Lincoln County. Each bag contains a blanket, a stuffed animal, personal care items, school supplies, and toys and/or books for boys and girls.

You can help a hurting child feel loved and more secure by joining us for our third annual Crop for HUGS service project.

Admission is $20 per person or $15 with a donation of items that can be placed in the bags. See suggestions on the right.

Includes: table space, uninterrupted time for you to work on your craft/hobby, free use of tools including Cricut with Designer Studio, a wide assortment of punches, templates, and more. Lunch, drinks, and snacks will be provided. The AHG MO2002 girls will be our hostesses for the day.

Bring your own materials and projects. Come enjoy some relaxing, creative time.

Space is limited, so sign up TODAY!! RSVP by January 21, 2011 (if possible)
